Maureen Buskirk, CFS Educator with the Boone County Extension Service will be offering two classes on Monday, February 8th, 2010 in the dining room of the Boone County Farm Bureau Community Building. This is a great time to give yourself an update on the latest Indiana Scams and how to avoid them at 10:00 a.m. You may not think it can happen to you but your might be unpleasantly surprised. Here is an opportunity to increase your awareness , learn ways to avoid exposure, and what to do if you suspect that you have been victimized. Call the Extension Office by Friday, February 5th to sign up. No fee.

Also on Monday at 11:00 a.m. join us for a hands-on learning experience on “What to Do When Your Income Drops” with Maureen. Whether it is the result of job lay-off, reduced hours, retirement, or another reason the best defense is indeed a good offense. Assess where you are at now, where would you be if it happens and how to prepare for the worst case scenario. Again, no fee but pre-register by call the office by Friday at 765-482-0750. This class is open to all.
